

MARK JENKIN
Writer / Director

Mark Jenkin is a filmmaker and visual artist from West Cornwall.

His debut feature film The Midnight Drives described by Derek Malcolm as ‘a moving film about parentage with an exceptional performance by Colin Holt’ premiered at the BFI as part of London UK Film Focus and was selected for competition at Dinard 2007.

He is currently developing The Suicide String for Parallax with Carn Burton and Sally Hibbin as producer and executive producer; and Pictures of You, a romantic comedy with producers Simon Harvey and Pippa Cross.

Mark devised the acclaimed and highly atmospheric online video work Aurora’s Kiss (www.auroraskiss.com).

Credits include documentaries My Name is Zac (Favourite Films/ITV - * winner Best Regional Documentary, RTS Awards 2007), New Reed (The Small Axe/A39 Live& Media), The Cornish Farmer (Boatshed Films), The Lobsterman.

Short films include Love Song No. 7, Another Horizon, The Mixed Emotions of a Middle Distance Runner (* Audience Award – Roughcut One Take Wonder, 2006), The Man Who Needed a Traffic Light (Festival Director’s Choice – Brief Encounters, 2003), Golden Burn (Winner – Frank Coplestone First Time Director Award, Celtic Film & TV Festival, 2002)

Mark is a member of Newlyn Society of Artists

Agent: Toby Moorcroft